ITINERARY

BUNDANOON VILLAGE MARKET – This delightful little market is held in the hall, which is at the far end of the village's shopping centre. The Market is packed with arts, craft, produce, books, knit-ware, fashion, home-wares, clothing, jams, preserves, olive oil products, soap, honey, lavender products and much more!

BUNDANOON VILLAGE – After visiting the Market, you'll have time to wander around the village centre, taking in the atmosphere of this quaint, little country village. There are two nice tea rooms within metres of the Market, where you'll be able to enjoy some delicious refreshments and country hospitality.

THE OLD CHEESE FACTORY – This complex is situated in the little village of Robertson, famous for being where part of the movie, Babe, was made. Once the factory where the famous Robertson Cheese was produced, it is now a small shopping complex, housing the 'The Robertson Cheese Store' – offering a huge range of cheeses from around the world, as well as sauces, jams, condiments, cordials, and much more, the 'Robertson Ice Cream & Fudge' shop – you are sure to be tempted! The 'Pig 'n' Whistle Café' – serving snacks and lunches, with some delicious temptations on the menu, 'Ginger Pod' – with a lovely range of gifts and homewares, 'Limited Edition Designs' – with it's wide selection of fine yarns and lavender products, 'Gallery Serpentine' – a shop packed with elegant period costumes and outfits, and 'Carmen's Collectibles' - packed with an intriguing range of bric-a-brac.

HISTORIC BERRIMA VILLAGE – A visit to this historic village is a must for anyone visiting the Highlands. The village is packed with wonderful arts, craft and antique shops, eating establishments, as well as points of historical significance. During your visit, be sure to visit the shops in the 'Mrs Oldbucks' complex. You will be totally amazed by the variety and selection of jams on offer in the famous 'Mrs Oldbucks Jams' shop, and wait until you see the range of incredible Christmas decorations available in 'Sprinkles of Berrima', in the same complex.

TEMPT ME WITH – This outlet, in Mittagong, has people travelling from as far away as Sydney and Canberra to purchase quality jewellery at wholesale prices. With nothing over $200.00, and prices starting at $5.00, the outlet caters for all tastes and budgets. The outlet also stocks a range of fashion accessories. You're sure to be tempted!

THE VILLAGE WOODWORKS – this small establishment, on the outskirts of Robertson, is packed with handmade timber products, including furniture, wooden household items, soaps, candles, puzzles, games, pottery, and more!
