ITINERARY

BUNDANOON MARKETS - This well-known, and long established, little Market, is held in the Town Hall, right in the main shopping centre of this pretty town. You will have sufficient time to browse around the Market, as well as take a stroll through the main street.

THE SOUTHERN HIGHLANDS CHRISTMAS FAIR – this exciting Fair, which is now in its sixth year of operation, has become known as one of the premier Christmas Fairs in the region. It is held in the grounds of Southern Highland Wines, one of the most modern and impressive wineries on the Highlands. It will contain up to 200 high quality arts, craft and produce stalls, offering 1000s of potential Christmas presents. This year, there'll be a completely new entertainment program, consisting of singers, choirs, dancers, as well as clowns, jugglers and much more. An entry fee of $3.00 (incl. GST) for adults over 16 years and $1.00 (incl. GST) for children under 16 years, applies to all passengers, and is payable on entry to the Fair. You'll have sufficient time to have lunch during your visit to the Fair. There will be a wide selection of delicious food and drinks available at the Fair, and plenty of open air seating, for you to sit and eat your lunch, whilst enjoying the entertainment.

BERRIMA SHOPPING CENTRE – This fabulous shopping centre is a haven for Christmas shoppers. The village shops are packed with jams, condiments, knick-knacks, arts & crafts, bric-a-brac, antiques, imported clothes, needlecraft and much, much more. You'll have around 1½ hours to wander this exciting shopping village and to purchase some unique and different Christmas presents. As most of you would be aware, there are a number of coffee shops and tea rooms in Berrima, where you are sure to find something tempting and tasty during your visit.

TEMPT ME WITH – This outlet has people travelling from as far away as Sydney and Canberra to purchase quality jewellery at wholesale prices. With nothing over $200.00, and prices starting at $5.00, the outlet caters for all tastes and budgets. The outlet also stocks a range of quality accessories and fashion items at great prices.
